

◆ Schools not offering either Federal Breakfast or Lunch Programs⁸

Hunger is on the rise in our state. How strong is the safety net in Vermont?

84,300 number of Vermonters participating in 3SquaresVT, formerly known as Food Stamps.¹

“This is the most urgent time for our feeding programs in our lifetime, with the exception of the Depression...It’s time for us to face up to the fact that in this country of plenty, there are hungry people.”

- New York Times, November 29, 2009

34% statewide increase in 3SquaresVT participation over last year.¹

1 in 8 Vermont households are food insecure.

33% of grade school and high school students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals.²

186 charitable food sites across the state.⁷

29% of schools are offering afterschool snacks through the federal snack program.³

33% of childcare centers participate in CACFP, the Child and Adult Care Food Program, which provides nutritious meals to preschool and after-school programs.⁴

3,369 Vermonters served each month through the Commodity Supplemental Food Program.⁵

133 summer food sites.⁶

* Data sources on reverse

Recent surveys show that 1 in 6 Vermont children and more than 1 in 8 Vermont households are food insecure. Join us in our efforts to end childhood hunger. Visit the Vermont Campaign to End Childhood Hunger website at vtnohunger.org for more information on solutions to hunger and how you can help.

For details on food assistance programs, visit vermontfoodhelp.com or call 2-1-1.

Hunger in Vermont

Vermont Campaign to End Childhood Hunger

802-865-0255 • www.vtnohunger.org

UPDATED 5/15/10

What You Can Do to Combat Hunger

PROVIDE FOOD RESOURCES TO YOUR CONSTITUENTS

Encourage your constituents to take advantage of nutrition assistance programs. Include information on food resources in your newspaper columns or constituent reports. Flyers and sample articles are available at www.vtnohunger.org/toolkit.

3SquaresVT (formerly the Food Stamp Program)

3SquaresVT stretches family food budgets by providing eligible Vermonters with additional money to spend on food. Currently, 84,300 Vermonters are enrolled bringing over $10 million into the state each month to be spent locally.

Applying is easy. Visit www.vermontfoodhelp.com or call the Dept. for Children & Families at 1-800-479-6151.

Free or Reduced-Price School Meals

Apply any time and bring federal money into your school meal program. Contact your local school for an application or download one from the web at:

www.vtnohunger.org/schoolmealapplication.pdf

Local Food Shelf and Community Meal Program

Call toll-free 2-1-1 for locations and hours in your community and information on general resources.

SPREAD THE WORD THROUGHOUT YOUR COMMUNITY

Make sure that program information and applications (such as school meal applications, 3SquaresVT materials, 2-1-1 flyers) are available in community gathering places such as town offices, local stores, food shelves, public libraries, the VFW, and the Grange.

Work with the Vermont Campaign to End Childhood Hunger to bring together a group of concerned citizens to learn and strategize about food resources in your community.

¹ 3SquaresVT Participation Report for December 2009 and December 2008. Economic Services Division, Vermont Department of Children and Families.

² 08-09 County Participation and Enrollment Totals. Vermont Department of Education.

³ After School Snack Program for 2010. Vermont Department of Education, Food and Nutrition Management.

⁴ Vermont Child Development Division, 2008.

⁵ Data Source: CSFP on vtfoodbank-ts/csfp. Participation by Site/Food Package – New Mexico Department of Health – CSFP.

⁶ 2009 SFSP Data and 2009 SSO Data. Vermont Department of Education, Child Nutrition.

⁷ Vermont Foodbank County Partners. www.vtfoodbank.org.

⁸ Vermont Public Schools Not Participating in the Federal School Breakfast or Lunch Program as of October 1, 2009. Vermont Department of Education, Child Nutrition Program.